

Caught in an endless time
Waiting for a sign
To show you where to go

Lost in a silent stare
Looking anywhere
For answers you don't know

On the wire
Balancing your dreams
Hoping ends will meet their means
But you feel alone

Uninspired
Well, does it help you to
Know that I believe in you
You're an angel waiting for wings, Emily

You, going through this stage
It's a restless age
Young and insecure

Sill there are doubts to fade
Moments to be made
And one of them is yours

On the wire
Balancing your dreams
Hoping ends will meet their means
But you feel alone

Uninspired
Oh, does it help you to
Know that I believe in you
You're an angel waiting for wings, Emily

On the wire
Balancing your dreams
Hoping ends will meet their means
But you feel alone

Uninspired
Oh, does it help you to
Know that I believe in you
You're an angel waiting for wings
Oh, you're an angel waiting for wings, Emily
