

You Are the Fire

Michael W. Smith

You are the flame that's growing deep inside
You are the blazing passion in my eyes
You are the aching shut up in my bones
You are the longing that won't let me go

Let it burn, let it burn now
From the inside out
Let it rage, let it rage now
You are the fire
You are the fire

You're all consuming, You can't be contained
Never relenting, changing everything
You are the love that overwhelms my heart
You are the fire lighting up the dark

Let it burn, let it burn now
From the inside out
Let it rage, let it rage now
You are the fire
You are the fire

Fan the flames 'til the whole world sees us burn
You are the fire
Fan the flames 'til the whole world sees us burn
You are the fire
Fan the flames 'til the whole world sees us burn
You are the fire
Fan the flames 'til the whole world sees us burn

Let it burn, let it burn now
From the inside out
Let it rage, let it rage now
You are the fire
You are the fire
You are the fire
