

Hopeless Romantic

Michelle Branch

Cause I'm a hopeless romantic
When I should run for my life

You got me on my knees, you got me crawling
But love is always bad when you're falling
Everything is dangerous when it's just the two of us
Jumping in over our heads

Never satisfied
I never wanna close my eyes
Now I can sleep at night
But I'm never sleeping

Cause I'm a hopeless romantic
When I should run for my life
Honey, I don't understand it
Cause it's magic, but it's tragic
I know you're gonna eat me alive
You're gonna eat me alive

Underneath the sheets I feel so wanted
You're the mystery that I am solving
Everything is dangerous when it's just the two of us
Jumping in over our heads

Now I toss and turn
Now I only toss and turn
When will I ever learn?
Boy, I never listen

Cause I'm a hopeless romantic
When I should run for my life
Honey, I don't understand it
Cause it's magic, but it's tragic
I know you're gonna eat me alive
You're gonna eat me alive

Cause I'm a hopeless romantic
When I should run for my life
Honey, I don't understand it
Cause it's magic, but it's tragic
I know you're gonna eat me alive
You're gonna eat me alive
