

Knock Yourself Out

Michelle Branch

Here we are, we are waiting for life begin
And I'm just so bored of innocence
And everybody is busy making plans well go ahead
Knock yourself out
I'm heading out of here to who knows where
Maybe I'll write a song and sing one [?]
Is that enough to make me happy well
I won't know until I get there

I keep talking but no one listens
And I keep hearing things that I can't understand
And I see beauty in the [?]
And I'm just trying to figure out who I am
I'm just trying to figure out who I am

In the dark I can feel the weight of the world
Pushing down on top of my shoulders
You think you're strong enough to carry it all
Go ahead, knock yourself out

I keep talking but no one listens
And I keep hearing things that I can't understand
And I see beauty in the [?]
And I'm just trying to figure out who I am
I'm just trying to figure out who I am

I hope all that I've learned will make sense
When I get there
When I get there
I hope all that I've learned will make sense
When I get there
When I get there

I keep talking but no one listens
And I keep hearing things that I can't understand
And I see beauty in the [?]
And I'm just trying to figure out who I am
I'm just trying to figure out who I am

And I hope all that I've learned will make sense
When I get there
