

Not a Love Song

Michelle Branch

You were my first ever
I wish we never met
You drink to feel better
I'm drinking to forget
My heart is hungover, roll over in my bed
I need something stronger
So I can breathe again
Remember when you said "Together, forever, whatever."

You're not even enough for a love song
You're just somebody that I wasted my youth on
Turn up the radio I wanna let you know, oh
This isn't your love song
Oh oh no
This isn't your love song
Oh oh oh
Said this isn't your love song

I'm bitter I'm not sorry
I'm not even heartbroken
Cause I knew when we started
That it would have to end
Remember when you said "Together, forever, whatever."

You're not even enough for a love song
You're just somebody that I wasted my youth on
Turn up the radio I wanna let you know, oh
This isn't your love song
Oh oh no
This isn't your love song
Oh oh oh
Said this isn't your love song

Long night cheap wines
I cried but never about you
Its slurred but I got the last word
Long night more wine
I lied I do think about you
It hurts but I got the last word

You're not even enough for a love song
You're just somebody that I wasted my youth on
Turn up the radio I wanna let you know, oh
This isn't your love song
Oh oh no, no
This isn't your love song
Oh oh oh
Said this isn't your love song

You're not even enough for a love song
You're just somebody that I wasted my youth on
Turn up the radio I wanna let you know, oh
Oh oh no, no
Oh oh oh
Said this isn't your love song

Yeah this isn't your love song
