

Temporary Feeling

Michelle Branch

Strange how strangers know you better
Than you ever knew yourself
You're a lover and a dancer
But you need somebody else
Now you're taking off your cool
I thought you never fell this fast before
And I'm just seeing where this goes

It's just a temporary feeling
I'm gonna have to let you go
I'm gonna love you love you like I mean it
And then I need to take it slow
It's just a temporary feeling
So I need to take it slow

Strange how sincerely we can meet each
Of the end to something deep
For the minute we're both in it
It's so mutual how we deceive
Now you're taking off my clothes
And I never felt like this before
We're just seeing where this goes

It's just a temporary feeling
I'm gonna have to let you go
I'm gonna love you love you like I mean it
And then I need to take it slow

You think it's only physical
Until we make it chemical
I guess we're not immune to love
And it's just the two of us

It's just a temporary feeling
I'm gonna have to let you go
I'm gonna love you love you like I mean it
And so I need to take it slow
It's just a temporary feeling
So I need to take it slow
