

I Will Be Fine

Michelle Featherstone

Never did I wonder why
I felt this way inside
Never did I wonder why
your arms weren't open wide Never did I wonder if the truth was ever told
And after all the wounds
why you became so cold Never did I think that you would make me feel so sad Never did I think that it would ever hurt this bad
Never did I think that you could hurt me like you do
And after all the lies how I believed in you

I will be fine
And I don't you need you boy
I will be fine
And I don't need anything
Cuz I've got all of the things that I need
And I'm fine

Never did I worry that I'd have to say goodbye Never did I worry that someday you'd make me cry Never did I worry that you'd even not come home And after all of this that I would be alone

I will be fine
And I don't need you boy
I will be fine
And I don't need anything
Cuz I've got all of the things that I need
And I'm fine fine fine fine

I'll bet you thought that I'd be devasted and isolated Perhaps you thought that I'd be sad and crying Begging and whining but I'll be fine
I'll be fine

I will be fine
I will be fine
and I will be fine

I will be fine
And I don't need anything
And I'm fine
Yeah I'm fine

I will be fine
And I don't need anything
And I'm fine fine fine
Oh I'm fine
