

Heaven Will Be Near Me

Michelle Tumes

Evening fills the crimson sky
Another day is leaving I think of you
Waves roll in the afternoon
They echo in the rising moon and I think of you

And I say, oh Lord
I think of You
Heaven will be near me when I think of You
And I say, oh Lord
I think of You
Heaven will be near me when I think of You

Families roam along the shore
Their laughter travels through my soul and I think of You
Lovers watch the evening sky
They whisper as the wind goes by and I think of You

There's fire in my soul
And there's healing in Your eyes
I just want to fly in Your arms
If ever I grow cold
I want to realize
Heaven will be near me when I think of You
Heaven will be near me when I think of You

Heaven will be near me
Heaven will be near me
Heaven will be near me when I think of You
