

Lovely

Michelle Tumes

you're the sweet dreams that soothe me when i cant fall asleep
you're the field
in the middle of the city
im rushing by
in the speed of light

you're the strong resolution when i found all the piece you're the church bells a ringin
in the evening
im always quiet
your whisper comfort
bless my heart
i get so weak

oh you're lovely lovely
you're the center of my universe
(my universe)
a thousand times
i look around your heart why

you're the center of my universe
(my universe)
a million ways
i cannot explain
you're lovely

you're the soft words that touch me when i just can't speak you're the breeze on the ocean
in the morning
im whining when
to greet the day

you're the flowers i remember
singin into me
colors true
are cold than rain
prize and week
soft and weak
and new day sun
make me see

you're the center of my universe
(my universe)
a thousand times

(my universe)

i understand
that there may be grief
and there may be pain
but i am aware
you blind the darkness
with who you are
because

(my universe)
