

If We Had Your Eyes

Michelle Williams

Can you spare some change is what I heard him say
At the light, so I dug thru my ashtray
My good deed today, changed my life
I thought I knew it all, quick to right him off
Looked like he was lost, til I heard him speak
Now I've heard that voice before knew that it was Yours
He said you loved me more than I even believed

People judge from what they see
But Lord you see the whole world

If we had Your eyes
(If we had Your eyes)
We'd see things right
(If we had Your eyes)
If we could just see from Your point of view
Then most things won't be as they seem
If we had Your eyes
(If we had Your eyes)

I had the perfect day, is what she says to me all the time
She's so beautiful, nothing's ever wrong in her life
Yeah that's what I thought, until I saw the scars she cut in her arm
That she was hiding from me
She never said a word, and all I said to her is that
That You love her more
Than she could ever believe

People judge from what they see
But Lord you see the whole world

If we had Your eyes
(If we had Your eyes)
We'd see things right
(If we had Your eyes)
If we could just see from Your point of view
Then most things won't be as they seem
If we had Your eyes
(If we had Your eyes)

Show me, teach me, How to see clearly,
Live in the spirit, and truth
We'd be able to show love, the way that You love us
(If we could see like You)
Oh uh oh oh oh
(If we had Your eyes)
If we had Your eyes
(If we had Your eyes...)
If we had Your eyes...

If we had Your eyes
