

Thank You

Michelle Williams

Yeah, mmmh, yeah

I bet you're surprised, uh
To see me waiting up for you
There's something I gotta say
Never in my life
That I ever imagined that
That love was ever gonna feel this way

And I never ever felt so special
Never knew something good be so true
And I'm so much better
Pray for forever
Baby I owe it all to you

I wanna thank you
For staying out late all the time
While you were out getting yours
Boy I was getting mine
I wanna thank you
For the times you cheated on me
'Cause I almost loved you forever
Never would have found someone better
I wanna thank you, thank you
For loosing me
I wanna thank you, thank you
For loosing me

Don't look surprised
You really think I was so blind
I wouldn't notice the signs
And it was you, uh
Who gave me all the time to find
All the love that you ain't giving me no more

And I never ever felt so special
Never knew it could feel so good inside
I'm so much better
Pray for forever
So before I say goodbye to you

I wanna thank you (thank you)
For staying out late all the time (late all the time, baby)
While you were out getting yours
Boy I was getting mine (I was getting mine, yeah)
I wanna thank you
For the times you cheated on me (cheated on me)
'Cause I almost loved you forever (forever)
Never would have found someone better (no)
I wanna thank you, thank you
For loosing me (thank you baby)
I wanna thank you, thank you
For loosing me (oh)

I've never been so sincere
'Cause all the things you did
Made everything so clear

Baby I understand
I wanna find a real man
If it wasn't for you

For leavin' me alone at night
For not coming up with better lies
'Cause he loves me better
Than you could ever
And I owe it all to you

I wanna thank you (thank you)
For staying out late all the time (hey, hey, hey)
While you were out getting yours (while you were out)
Boy I was getting mine (I was getting mine)
I wanna thank you (hey)
For the times you cheated on me
'Cause I almost loved you forever (yeah)
Never would have found someone better (I never would have found him)

I wanna thank you (thank you)
For staying out late all the time
While you were out getting yours
Boy I was getting mine (I was getting mine)
I wanna thank you
For the times you cheated on me (cheated on me)
'Cause I almost loved you forever (oh)
Never would have found someone better
I wanna thank you, thank you (I wanna thank you, thank you)
For loosing me
I wanna thank you, thank you (I would never love him)
For loosing me
