

Don't Say a Thing

Mick Harvey

It's not going, it's not going, stay still
It's the only way to move in here
Or I'll smash my mouth, kill myself
You have anyway considering what you have done to me,
What's left to say about it, rien, Mon Dieu, rien
Good god, she is her, she is not her.
It is not possible, not possible, and yet,
It is enough for me to close my eyes and you are her

Don't say a thing
Especially don't
Don't say a thing follow me
Don't say a thing
Don't be afraid
Fear nothing from me
Follow me to the end of the night
The end of my lunacy
Leave time behind, tomorrow for-
-get it all think of nothing more
