Dipped In Vaseline

Mickey Avalon

I stroll down the Ave like big Johnny Rogers I pull tricks for a fix and tonight I got flows for hoes with low self esteem And more for those swallow protein

The kid from the 60's stars in skin flicks And pays the rent inch after inch But now I get fly with lyrics While you guys be on some queer shit

Check out the way I take a mark for
All that he's got and a whole lot more
'Cause when your drawers hit your ankles
I un'take the shank out my sock and take the bank roll

Oh shit, you just got lit by an illegitimate kid Out the orphanage run and shit I'm cumin' with styles you can't handle Smoother than the velvet that was hanging from my mantle

So light a candle and praise yo' Lord Mickey Avalon's some shit you can afford

All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl I'll smash your dreams
All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl

I'm'a constraint hotty getting saucy at the swap meet If you want to party get my number and call me From dawn to dusk I bust nuts and shoot Charlie When you got some money then come and get yo' jollies

A Quarantine in this California dream All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline My foster parents told me that I could be Anything I wanted to so I became me

Mickey Avalon the kid who runs free Serving sucka MC's and getting paid for my delivery I freak beats that stain yo silk sheets Filthy on the mike like Lenny Bruce used to be

They had booster in the pantry, howlin' like a banshee And even when I'm wearin' panties I stay manly

All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl I'll smash your dreams
All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl

In the Hollywood hills, swallowing pills
Tipsy off scotch whiskey, sniffin' blow thro hundred dolla bills
I toast my mostas from coast to coast
In penthouse suits with out any clothes

I used to stroll to avid holes in my shoes

But now I fly first class and bask in sun tanning booths Hustling gay dude for Quaalude's, out by the pool In a baby blue bathing suit

Waiting for Jesus to bring the juice I was payin' dues while you was playin' in school I took the whole scene over with the flow from my lips Here's an autographed picture for yo lil' sis

My days of turning tricks are behind me Unless you got the time to wine and dine me

All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl I'll smash your dreams
All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl

All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl I'll smash your dreams
All up on the scene dipped in Vaseline
In a mask and jeans, girl
