

Put Your Dreams Away

Mickey Gilley

Every now and then someone comes to you
And somehow you know, a dream has just come true
Well, here it is baby and what I'm trying to say
Well here I am, darling, you can put your dreams away

Ever wish for love and you wish so long
You begin to think, it would never come along
Well, here it is baby, and what I'm trying to say
Here I am, darling, so put your dreams away

Put your dreams away, just lay beside me
Take all this love, that's here inside me
Here's all the dream, you'll ever need

Put your dreams away, rest them on my shoulder
Darling, the search is over, if you wanna love
That's here to stay, you can put your dreams away

You can look for love, in a thousand eyes
You can search the world, but don't you realize?
That, here it is baby, what I'm trying to say
I'll always love you darling, so, put your dreams away

Put your dreams away and just lay beside me
Take all this love, that's here inside me
Here's all the dream, you'll ever need

Put your dreams away, rest them on my shoulder
Darling, the search is over, if you wanna love
That's here to stay

Put your dreams away and just lay beside me
Take all the love, that's here inside me
Here's all the dream, you'll ever need
