

Blown To Bits (Start To Run)

Middle Class Rut

Everyone in the building
WAKE UP
We encompass time
If you really were melting here
That's freedom

Hit the race and start to run
Leave the weak one one far behind
The battle of love down here will heal you

You can't live on what you want alone
Oh
Because if you do you're gonna die alone
Oh

Everyone with a problem
STAND UP
I ain't gonna lie
Because the wrong that you admit
Will beat you

But I never let it keep me down
No, I never did compromise
But that's just me and
I ain't you, YEA!

You can't live on what you want alone
Oh
Because if you do you're gonna die alone
Oh
