

Beneath A Spielberg Sky

Midge Ure

One day you will wake too find
The world has changed its mind and all the visions you believed in
Had turned blind

Watch it as it happens on the news
Live from the camera on the missile
As it plays his pantomime

When the morning comes
Open up your eyes
And see it disappear forever
Beneath a Spielberg sky

When the morning comes
Open up your eyes
And see it disappear forever
Beneath a Spielberg sky

Watch the Barbie dolls and all
The redneck
In their four wheel trucks
Wage war around the world to keep Them rolling

See our buddy boys keep pulling strings
To make our movers dance and sing
I wonder who they think they're fooling

When the morning comes
Open up your eyes
And see it disappear forever
Beneath a Spielberg sky

When the morning comes
Open up your eyes
And see it disappear forever
Beneath a Spielberg sky

Beneath a Spielberg sky
Beneath a Spielberg sky

When the morning comes
Open up your eyes
And see it disappear forever
Beneath a Spielberg sky.
