

Nothin' New Under the Neon

Midland

You can't say I didn't warn ya
When you chased her out to California
Then she went and married someone else
It don't really matter where you been
We always pick back up again
They come waiting on down that shelf

Nothin' new under the neon
Same old stories of girls and glory
And the same old blue
Buzz that we lean on
Just drinking down loving
Life ain't nothin' new under the neon

Remember when you lost your father
We blew through a couple hundred dollars
Missin' him, reminiscin' him, toastin' his name
I never saw my name in lights but I
Still play here on Friday nights
Yeah I guess some things never change

Nothin' new under the neon
Same old stories of girls and glory
And the same old blue
Buzz that we lean on
Just drinking down loving
Life ain't nothin' new under the neon

Who knows when we'll be back here
How many miles, how many years
How many laughs, how many beers
We've both been through

Nothin' new under the neon
Same old stories of girls and glory
And the same old blue
Buzz that we lean on
Just drinking down loving
Life ain't nothin' new under the neon
