

Somewhere on the Wind

Midland

Bye bye baby
Bye bye baby

That old freight train was only passing through
And I know how it feels, and I know how it feels
That open road got me reaching for my boots
It's crying for my wheels, it's crying for my wheels
So baby dry your eyes
You shouldn't be surprised

Goodbye is just too hard to say
So let's just say I'll see you again
And I already miss you, so baby let me kiss you
'Fore I head back to where I've always been
Somewhere on the wind
Somewhere on the wind

And I wish sometimes that I could hang around
Long enough to hang my hat, but I ain't built like that
By tomorrow night, I'll be south of nowhere bound
You'll be alone there in that bed, one more thing that I regret
Just like every river bends
That's how every hello ends

Goodbye is just too hard to say
So let's just say I'll see you again
And I already miss you, so baby let me kiss you
'Fore I head back to where I've always been
Somewhere on the wind
Somewhere on the wind

Just like every river bends
That's how every hello ends

Goodbye is just too hard to say
So let's just say I'll see you again
And I already miss you, so baby let me kiss you
'Fore I head back to where I've always been
Somewhere on the wind
Somewhere on the wind
Somewhere on the wind

Bye bye baby
