Haunted

Midnattsol

Haunted and drifted into a corner No open door in sight Circling around in a blizzard Painfully rifted scars

Surrender your sword! Rescue your soul!

Despondent 'cause I have given Signs of unthoughtful crimes An act against my own heaven Forgive me for sins of hate

Forced to create a struggle Will you ever understand? The resolution of a jealous action The sword was not made by my hand

Waiting for an instant answer Waiting for the truth Floundering in my river Searching like a fool

Surrender your sword! Rescue your soul!

Sleepless nights Was it worth it? Detest the fake role of grace I'm riding an endless journey Insanity: you're never safe!
