

Muddy River Of Loneliness

Midnight Choir

Muddy river of loneliness fought the boredom of the road
With no signs of disrespect for the dark and heavy load
For tomorrow

They made love upon a morning
To the beating sound of blood
All her secrets disclosed lying in his arms
My lips won't lie to you

Muddy river of loneliness fought the boredom of the road
With no sign of disrespect for the dark and heavy load
They made love upon a faithless morning
To the beating sound of blood
All her secrets disclosed lying in his arms

Muddy river of loneliness fought the boredom of the road
Muddy river of loneliness fought the boredom of the road
Muddy river of loneliness fought the boredom of the road
Muddy river of loneliness fought the boredom of the road
My lips won't lie to you
