

Another Boy

Midtown

Have you found the person
That you want to spend your life with
Or do you want?
Do you want another . . .
You can't proscribe affection
Because you're scared to live about it
Do you want another boy?
Can't erase the other one
So we waste each other
Character lies in intent
Do you want another boy.
