

Let Go

Midtown

I know you'll never lose
what's lost inside you.
You're burning down
the bridges you've crossed.
And you're still around
so nothing's certain.
Just let go,
We deserve it.

If I could choose to start it over
I'd exercise more discretion.
The lies are about
so nothing's certain.
Do you have good intentions?

Come on, let go
of those affectations.
You don't fool anyone.
Come on, let go
if you want to take on.
The years won't say
what happened to you.

What gains have you earned?
What friends have you trampled over?
When you're around nothing's certain
Just let go,
We deserve it.

Come on, let go
of those affectations.
You don't fool anyone.
Come on, let go
if you want to take on.
The years won't say
what happened to you.

And you're still around
so nothing's certain.
Just let go,
We deserve it.

You'll never lose
what's lost inside you.
You're burning down the bridges you've crossed.
And you're still around
so nothing's certain.
Just let go,
We deserve it
We deserve it.

Come on, let go
of those affectations
Come on, let go

of those affectations
Come on, let go
of those affectations
Come on and let go
Come on and let go

Come on, let go
of those affectations.
You don't fool anyone.
Come on, let go
if you want to take on.
The years won't say
what happened to you.

Come on and let go
Come on and let go
Come on and let go
