

We Bring Us Down

Midtown

If I shut my eyes
I'd never see you
The lies would vanish too
I'd have to squint to find truth
What's right?
The weight is huge to reach conclusions
Where were you when conscience called
What a mess we're in now
Pulling out would be twice as hard
Than to live it all down
Bring us down
