

When I Dream, I Sea

Mighty Oaks

oh i'll scream and now cause i'm lost in a city on the west side and you've got me cry in' out oh you left me and i'm looking for a reason why and when i dream, i see my mother's eyes because she raised me and in my father's steps i go to a goal that's unknown and these roads seem to go for miles and i know not what lies around the bends and i have been known to crash at times and i rely on the love from my friends
