

Child

Miguel Bosé

When you were born into this world
Your mom and dad saw a dream fulfilled
Dream come true, the answer to their prayers

The world to them was a special child
They even enjoy every time you smile
It's time to cry
They're at your side again

Child you don't know, you'll never know
How far they'd go to give you
All their love can give

To see you through, and God it's true
They'd die for you, if they must
To see you live

Many seasons came and went
So many years have now been spent
For time ran fast and now at last you're strong

Now what is scattered over you?
You seem to hate your parents, too
Speak out your mind
Why do you find them wrong?

Child you don't know, you'll never know
How far they'd go to give you
All their love can give

To see you through, and God it's true
They'd die for you, if they must
To see you live

And now your path has gone astray
Child you ain't sure what to do or say
You're so alone, no friends are on your side

And child, you now break down in tears
Let them drive away your fears
You must to go
Their arms stay open wide

Child you don't know, you'll never know
How far they'd go to give you
All their love can give

To see you through, and God it's true
They'd die for you, if they must
To see you live

To see you through, and God it's true
They'd die for you, if they must
To see you live

To see you through, and God it's true
They'd die for you, if they must

To see you live
