

Face the Sun

Miguel

I ain't a saint, I think you know
But I see a way I'm gonna go
It's no debate that I belong with you, yeah
Baby, we're the same, you know my flaws
So if I ever strain, you know the code
But no matter what I do, I know, I know I belong with you
I belong with you, yeah, baby
Yeah, I got a temper, but I'm just sayin'
You pushin' buttons just cause you can
You know I hate it, but I belong with you, oh
But when I'm gone, I think you do
You shouldn't worry 'bout someone new Cause no matter where I go, you know I know I belong with you

I belong with you, oh, baby, I belong with you
You left right a woman, oh
Cause when it's time to face the sun
I know that you're the only one, only one

Oh, yeah, baby, I belong with you
Yeah, I belong with you, I bet a dollar
Cause when it's time to face the sun
I know that you're the only one, the only one, yeah

Forever, baby, oh, the only one, yeah, you're the only one
Yeah, I belong to you, baby
Oh, we can face the sun, let's fall into forever, yeah

When it's said and done, you're the only one, you
I belong with you, oh, you, I belong with you, oh, baby
Oh, and when it's time to face the sun
I know that you're the only, you're the only one

I know that you're the only, you're the only one, you
Oh, cause when it's time to face the sun
I know that you're the only one, only one
