

Over and Over

Miike Snow

These are the days when the hills have eyes
And the parking meter can tell you something deep
In your sleep

They said that it's all coming and everything will get cleaner and brighter
And take my breath away

But that won't make me change the way i see the world over and over
Our fate's the same so let me hold on to you girl
Over and over

These are the days when the ones who do despise you will try to take Shits on you 9-to-5 to survive

But that won't make me change the way i see the world
Over and over
Our fate's the same so let me hold on to you girl
Over and over
