

Free As A Dove

Pinder, Mike

One day I asked aloud, amidst the dark confusion,
I asked, "where could be found" the answer to our problems
And then out of the dark, a voice was saying, "listen..."
"listen to your heart...we are all wise within" ...and...

Only you, only you can change the way you are
And only you can find your morning start,
Through the day while you're working, do your hands feel like c lay;
In the night when you're loving, do you give your love away...
Or save it for a rainy day...

Only you, only you can change the way you feel...
And only you can beat the karmic wheel.
Through the day when you're thinking,
Do you know who you are...
In the night while you're dreaming,
Do you know where you are...
Is your home a distant star!

Keep your head wide open...
Do not fall for the same old things that you did before...

This world's cold...religions they'll lead you anywhere
But the secret door...on your second floor.

This time around, you've got to see from the highest mountain
And then you'll find you've got to feel like the depths of the sea.

All light and sound is perepetual motion...
If you understand then one day you'll be free...
...free as a dove...
