

Save Your Goodbye

Mike Posner

Excuse me, your heart is in my heart
Hello, you've taken this too far
Am I just a piece you push in your board game?
Have you been laughing all day long?
You like it when it's hard for me to see straight
You make it go on and on and on and on and on

Save your goodbye
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go, go, go

Beg your pardon, you're standing on my love
Hello, have you not had enough?
Am I just a piece you push in your board game?
Have you been laughing all day long?
You like it when it's hard for me to see straight
You make it go on and on and on and on and on

Save your goodbye
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go, go, go, go, go

Save your goodbye
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go, go, go, go, go

Hey, it's my time to shine
And my sword is trembling
You're back inside my mind
And I can't stop remembering
I say I'm chasing dreams but you know I've been Running away from, running away from you
Some sort of comfort in your pain
I can't help from taking
No matter how I change
There will be no escaping
I say I'm chasing time but you know I've been
Running away from, running away from you

Save your goodbye
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go, go, go, go, go

Save your goodbye
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go
You're everywhere I go, go, go, go, go
