

Alive In New York City

Mikey Wax

yeah there's a story theres a song left to write if i could learn to let go of all my worries inside so i'm coming for you tonight i'm coming for you alright just give me a chance to get my mind straight you know that my heart's been locked so far away

i see the lights go out i'm alive in new york city and i know tonight im as young as i'll ever be no i wont live forever i just need to live it up tonight so i look in your eyes
and i'm coming back to life and some might say that it's all up to fate but i know that's no excuse to just sit there and wait

yea i'm coming for you alright just give me a chance to get my thoughts straight

you know that my heart's been locked so far away

yeah

i see the lights go out i'm alive in new york city and i, i know tonight im as young as i'll ever be yea i can make it here i just need to make it through the night
so i look in your eyes
i'm coming alive
i look in yours and i'm comin back to life i'm coming back to life
