

Perfect Holiday

Mikey Wax

Fields of white, skies of blue
The fire is bright in the living room
And I feel, baby, all we are is today

The morning news, as the coffee brews
The record spins those happy tunes
But all I feel, baby, all we are is today

So let those records play
Lay with me, let the snow just melt away
Cause right here makes a perfect holiday

Sleigh bells ring
Go and let em sing
Neighbors pass by with gifts to bring
But all I need, babe, all is I want is here today

So lets those records play
Lay with me, let the snow just melt away

Oh and some folks like a holiday on the beaches of LA
Oh but I don't know what's better than just laying here together in our
Sweaters watching snow melt away

Lets those records play
Lay with me let the snow just melt away
Yeah

Lets those records play
