

Mourning Doves

Mikky Ekko

Look at how far we've come
Look at this mess we've made
I'm still praying at the sun
Tears my body from the shade
Tell me that we're too far gone
Tell me that we'll be ok
Sweet, I've got to leave right now
Heaven wasn't so far away

But this is not an exercise
And nobody can save our lives [?]
Stop! Wanna fight, wanna fight!
Stop!

Mourning doves need me on the morning
Love wanna fight, wanna fight
Is that before you wake
Promise I, promise you, lean on me
Lean on me
I can be your soldier
Destined for war when is over
But we can't stop someone we love
We can be together like mourning doves

Eh, realize there's no escape
Realizes you from your mistakes
This is not what I wanted
But when the senses are calling
And the senses is a fallen embrace

Cause this not an exercise
And nobody can save our lives
Stop! Wanna fight, wanna fight!
Stop!

Mourning doves need me on the morning
Love wanna fight, wanna fight
Is that before you wake
Promise I, promise you can lean on me
Lean on me
I can be your soldier
Destined for war upon is over
But we can't stop
Someone we love
We can be together like mourning doves
We can be together like mourning doves

Cause we both know we're running out of time
We're running out of time
We're running out of time
We're running out of time
Listen, we're out of time
Listen
Listen
Listen

Mourning doves need me on the morning

Love wanna fight, wanna fight
Is that before you wake
Promise I, promise you can lean on me
Lean on me
I can be your soldier
Destined for war upon is over
But we can't stop someone we love
We can be together like mourning doves
We can be together like mourning doves
We can be together like mourning doves
Be together like, be together like
We can be together like mourning doves
