

East Northumberland High

Miley Cyrus

My problem isn't that I miss you
Cause I don't
My problem isn't that I kissed you, woah
I figured out
That you're nothing that I thought you're about
You're just caught in a place
That soon time will erase in my heart

You're my type of guy, I guess
If I was stuck in East Northumberland High
For the rest of my life
But people change
Thank God I did
Just because I liked you back then
It doesn't mean I like you now
Just because I liked you back then
It doesn't mean I like you

Your problem's not for lack of trying
Cause you do
It's just that you're at your best when you're lyin'
Now you're standin' here
Saying things you think I wanted to hear
But you've got it all wrong
I've already moved on my dear

R:

When you're standing near me
I don't see so clearly
The feelings are still so palpable
But when I take two steps away
It sheds some light on my day
Yeah, you can't go back
It's all in the past
Guess you gotta laugh at it

R:

And if there's some confusion
Let me tell you you're just delusional
Get a clue 'cause people change,
Thank God I did
Thank God I did

Thank God I did

Just because I liked you back then
It doesn't mean I like you now
Just because I liked you back then
It doesn't mean I like you
Doesn't mean I like you
Just because I liked you back then
It doesn't mean I like you now
