Miley Cyrus

Oh you broke my heart
I told you I was weak for love
But then you went around
And do what you wanted to do
And now I'm crying, crying

Ooh seemed like everything was going fine
I found the love that I thought was gonna last
Then I accidentally saw a few things in your cell
I even L-O-L, man I shoulda known
Why, why you do what you do
You, you might as well just tell the honest truth
See, I'm not really down with this
This ain't a Texan shit
No I got no biz
But it is what it is

I don't really have much to say
I was over it, the second that I saw her name
I got two letters for you
One of them's F
And the other one's U
Cause what you gotta do
Is go get yourself a clue
Only two letters to choose
One of them's F
And the other one's U
SMH I'm pressing send on you

Coulda been this
Coulda been that
We don't bend up
We don't bend back
Coulda said this
Coulda said that
Why you trippin'?
Let me hear that
I ain't tryna argue no more
I do it all for you
You know you're my rider
Baby let me show you

Ooh, I know what's been going on
Don't even try to act like Mr. Super Nonchalant
What makes you think I'd stick around
I'm not as stupid as you sound
And you sound really dumb right now
From A to Z
Ooh, I gotta lot of nasty things throwing up in my head
But none of them are worth my time
You're not even worth this rhyme
And I don't, I don't give a fine

I don't really have much to say
I was over it, the second that I saw her name
I got two letters for you
One of them's F

And the other one's U
Cause what you gotta do
Is go get yourself a clue
Only two letters to choose
One of them's F
And the other one's U
SMH I'm pressing send on you

Ooh, ooh, two letters for you
What you tripping on?
Girl you know you're wrong
Go let those girls drive you crazy

I don't really have much to say
I was over it, the second that I saw her name
I got two letters for you
One of them's F
And the other one's U
Cause what you gotta do
Is go get yourself a clue
Only two letters to choose
One of them's F
And the other one's U
SMH I I'm pressing send on you
