

Chasing the Wind

Milk Inc.

Chasing the wind
We were living
We would never give in
We were living
Followed the stars
Halfway to Mars
Too young to know
We were living

I found a picture of you
Inside a book I've closed
A thousand tears ago
Where are you now
God only knows
Did you forget it all

Will we ever share a night like that again
I don't know
If we ever get a second chance
I won't let it go

Chasing the wind
We were living
We would never give in
We were living
Followed the stars
Halfway to Mars
Too young to know
We were living

I still know every word
And everything you wrote
Keeps running through my mind
Where are you now
God only knows
Did you leave us behind

Will we ever share a night like that again
I don't know
If we ever get a second chance
I won't let it go

Too young
Too young
Too young to know

Too young
Too young
Too young to know

Too young
Too young
Too young to know

Too young
Too young
Too young to know

Followed the stars
Halfway to Mars
Too young to know
We were living

Chasing the wind
We were living
We would never give in
We were living
Followed the stars
Halfway to Mars
Too young to know
We were living

Too young
Too young
Too young to know

Too young
Too young
Too young to know
