

Livin' A Lie

Milk Inc.

You put on a fight
Blaming me the feeling's gone
But I know you ain't right
I never felt it all along

Livin' a lie
Tell me why I run and hide
Livin' a lie
You'll never know me deep inside

I put on a smile
And try to pretend that I'm alright
Cause it's only a while
Till I can run into the night

I hide away my fear
Hoping no-one will come near
Cause they can't see me
When I'm trying to be me
