

Losing Love

Milk Inc.

All these words inside my head.
No, I don't know whom to choose.
Should I stay with what I have?
Have I got something to lose?

All these different things I feel.
No, I don't know what to trust.
Can I know which one is real?
Can I know which one I've lost?

Am I losing love
Can I give enough
Am I losing love
I'm losing you.

All these different souls I've touched.
No. I don't know right from wrong.
Did I hurt their hearts that much?
Will I know where I belong?

All these different things I feel.
No, I don't know what to trust.
Can I know which one is real?
Can I know which one I've lost?

Is there something you can tell me?
Is there something you can say?

Does it hurt you when I touch him?
Does it hurt you when I say?
