

Sunrise.

Milk Inc.

Don't want to see the sunrise
I don't want to see the sun
Don't want to see the sunrise
'cause when the morning comes
It'll take you away from me
Oh, tomorrow you'll be gone
So far away from me
Oh, tomorrow you'll be gone

See, how the sunlight fades away
It's the end of our last day
My final night with you
One last kiss that underscores
That I'm forever yours
Will you miss me when you go
Promise me, you'll wait for me

Don't want to see the sunrise
I don't want to see the sun
Don't want to see the sunrise
'cause when the morning comes
It'll take you away from me
Oh, tomorrow you'll be gone
So far away from me
Oh, tomorrow you'll be gone

Look, how my smile tries to disguise
What you're reading in my eyes
At the breaking of the day
One last gaze at the stars above
This is more than summer love
Will you miss me when you go
Promise me, you'll wait for me

Don't want to see the sunrise
I don't want to see the sun
Don't want to see the sunrise
'cause when the morning comes
It'll take you away from me
Oh, tomorrow you'll be gone
So far away from me
Oh, tomorrow you'll be gone

Don't want to see the sunrise
I don't want to see the sun
Don't want to see the sunrise
'cause when the morning comes
It'll take you away from me
Oh, tomorrow you'll be gone
So far away from me
Oh, tomorrow you'll be gone
