

Nevermind when the birds ain't flying and those heavy clouds just standing still
'Cause it's you filling up the wind

Nevermind when the crocodiles don't let you walk along the riverside
'Cause it's you leaving that stupid fight

Nevermind when those birds don't fly and them heavy clouds just standing still
'Cause it's you living that stupid dream

Nevermind when those crocodiles
don't let you walk along the riverside
'Cause it's you leaving that stupid fight

My ego is dying in this cold century
Don't let me fall into the riverstorm
My ego is dying in this cold century
Don't let me fall into the riverstorm

Mama said, oh please let you open
Let you open these days
Mama said, oh please let you open
Let you open these days

Mama said, oh please let you open
Please let you open these days
Mama said, oh please let you open
Please let you open these days

Mama said, oh please let you open
Please let you open these days
Mama said, oh please let you open
Please let you open these days
