

I don't know what to say, cause I don't feel that good today
I don't know what to do, I left my mind in all that glue if I try to think or if I do something about this mess then I will find myself in a situation I can't deal with now my head it start to pound my thoughts are flying around and my body hits the ground.

I can't hear a sound and I feel fine
I can see what's wrong
I'm alone and strong.

I keep my eyes on you, just to make myself sure I don't know why I care, cause it makes me feel so poor and I must try to leave all this stuff behind me now I feel fine today, but tomorrow, I don't know what I will say cause my head will start to pound and my thoughts will fly around when my body hits the ground.

Then I won't hear a sound and I feel fine
I can see what's wrong
I'm alone and strong.
