

When I am lozin' must in a conversation
it makes me use my imagination
start to think that they're after me
'cause I'm as sore as those monkeys hope.
The chat goes on and I feel smaller,
the guys in front of me they get taller
when I open my mouth again to tell them something more
they answer me with a hockeyscore.

Must be strong, can't be wrong
or you'll be lozin' must, you'll be lozin' trust in yourself.

Well, I have this girl and I make her crazy
when I'm gone she's bored and lazy.
I get a kick from pushin' her
but I'm not sure about how she feels about it.
My favorite hockeyteam are strugglin'
it makes my stoamch bubblin' bad
their hard time really makes me sad.
We had some fucked up years now it's time to whipe away those t ears.

It's been a tough time for me this past year,
lots of questions who I am or what I wanna be.
I also found some answers the fog is gone.
I feel better every day and now the feeling is here to stay.
