Man or Mouse

Millencolin

Yeah, yeah, yeah... I hate myself when going Yeah, yeah, yeah

Hear me I sound like a Beatle I get cold feet when the pressure is on You can't see me coz I'm lost like a needle In a haystack yeah I'm almost gone Like a mouse follows the flute Or like a mute who can't dispute I fall in line with you

Mouse more than Man, yes I am You know I wanna say no and just stick to my own plan Mouse more than Man, yes I am Coz yet I go with the flow See me as a chameleon, a cheap shot I change my cast for anybody's best But I'm not free I feel more like a robot That is programmed to please the rest So whatever you want I'll do Whenever you want me to I will agree with you

Mouse more than Man, yes I am You know I wanna say no and just stick to my own plan Mouse more than Man, yes I am Coz yet I go with the flow Yeah, yeah, yeah... I hate myself when going Yeah, yeah, yeah No more sound like a Beatle Those cold feet are for yesterday No more getting the needle I cannot care about what others say

Mouse more than Man, yes I am You know I wanna say no and just stick to my own plan Mouse more than Man, yes I am Coz yet i go with the flow before the shit hits the fan Yeah, yeah, yeah... This is my last time going Yeah, yeah, yeah...
