

Dreams To Remember

Milli Vanilli

So long babe. I'm running out of time.
I'll never forget ya. You bless this heart of mine.
Homeward bound and you lay sound asleep.
Lost and found, these mem-'ries I keep.
I've got dreams to remember.
They're all about a love in September.
Dreams to remember.
Burning like the glow of an ember.
They're all about you.
Yesterday calls like some enchanted star.
I reach up to grab, but it's no easy mark.
Sweet and low, I land back on my feet.
Romeo will have your soul to keep.
I've got dreams to remember.
They're all about a love in September.
Dreams to remember.
Burning like the glow of an ember.
They're all about you.
I've got dreams to remember
