

One In A Million

Millionaires

ALLISON

You know I'm one in a million,
There's a million of you

MELISSA

I remember lying in my bedroom,
Simple days, all alone
Just us two
It was always, and forever
And my life couldn't get much better

I see you have the same friends
Same job and you just blend in
And now you're tryna holla
Sweet talk me like every other
I see you still look the same
New girl is such a downgrade
And now you're tryna holla
Give it up don't even bother

Everytime I feel my heart dwelling on you
Well I remember you're the one who broke it in two
Now it's like
Everyday you try to call,
Blowing me up,
You know I'm one in a million,
And you're s$%t out of luck
Hey babe you're just another mama's boy behind your tattoos
You know I'm one in a million,
There's a million of you

You know I'm one in a million,
There's a million of you

I remember the day you left me,
Running makeup and my heart so heavy,
Called you twice and you didn't even text back
Piece of s$%t, why you do me like that?

I see you have the same friends
Same job and you just blend in
And now you're tryna holla
Sweet talk me like every other
I see you still look the same
Cute face with a bigger frame
And now you're tryna holla

Everytime I feel my heart dwelling on you
Well I remember you're the one who broke it in two
Now it's like
Everyday you try to call,
Blowing me up,

You know I'm one in a million,
tattoos
You know I'm one in a million,
There's a million of you

Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
There's a million of you
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
There's a million of you

Everytime I feel my heart dwelling on you
Well I remember you're the one who broke it in two

Well I remember you're the one who broke it in two
In two

Everyday you try to call,
Blowing me up,
You know I'm one in a million,
