

Little More Time

Milow

An eyelash on your cheek crashed down and broken
Decided to leave so it jumped on a tear
Since '94 you've been wanting to grow up
Since '94 been trying to get out of here

I don't wanna find out whatever I needed
I'm way too afraid of what I could find
You're losing the thread while I'm losing my head
I wish that I will make up my mind

Don't write me off
Because I should try hard enough
I just need a little more time
Don't write me off
Because I haven't tried hard enough
I just need a little more time

The closer we get the more it looks like we've made it
I finally like this time of year
The closer you look we get less overrated
I hope that next week you'll still be here

An eyelash on your cheek crashed down and broken
Decided to leave so it jumped on a tear
Since '94 you've been wanting to grow up
But just like your eyelash you didn't get far
