

Dark Continent

Mind Assault

We are the voices
We are the voice of man
We are the truth behind every plan
Breeding all the children and the night of darkness falls
Strong and weak betrayed, what this hell has brought for all

Stand up and fight them
Stand up and crush them all
Stand up and crush them into the ground
Program all the people and like machines we obey
Fight against the odds, but there's no hope for us anymore

Pray for better days
Never ending suffering
Pray for sanity
Break down the darkness

Pray for me, pray for you

Pray for better days
Never ending suffering
Pray for sanity
Break down the darkness

No more the pain
No more the suffering
No more will we stand down and look away
Protect yourself and take away our freedom of choice
Leading fragile minds on the dark ways you choose for them
