

Die Rejected

Mind Assault

Burn this lie
You've told too many times before
Wounds don't heal
From infection of the human race
Made your life a hell
Through your own sickness

My will's not your way
This lie's been told too many times before
You die rejected

From this view
Your life is bathed in depression
Drown in the sympathy flowing from your guilt
Break your will
And suffer the dire consequence

This lie's been told too many times before
You die rejected

A new age arise
For disciples that bleed for freedom
Now bow down before your new god

Blinded extinction
Your lie is at a final end
Lies force fed
While you shit on my reality
Now save yourself
And don't believe in their lies

Walk away while you still have time
Walk away while you still have time
Walk away while you still have time
Walk away while there's still time

Now die rejected
