

Metal Rites

Mind Assault

An ancient force beckons me and to its call I heed
Wisdom of ten thousand years
The secrets on which we feed
There are those who wish to rob us of the power that sets us free
But ancient knowledge makes it clear
It's only jealousy

Hold one fist - Across your heart
Unite with horns to the heavens
Sacred sign of our fathers fore
Raised up high toward the sky

Metallum, Recreo
Rise again - My beloved friend
Apprime, Aeternitas
Strong again - Until the end

We don't owe you a fucking thing
We stand by our metal rites
We won't bow for anyone
We stand by our Metal Rites

If they could take it all away
Then they try this very day
Clothing and symbols we wear
The flag that we display
Spoils their notion of security
And leads to their dismay
The Metal Rites are strong with us
Our fraternity lives again

Hold one fist - Across your heart
Unite with horns to the heavens
Sacred sign of our fathers fore
Raised up high toward the sky

Metallum, Recreo
Rise again - My beloved friend
Apprime, Aeternitas
Strong again - Until the end

We don't owe you a fucking thing
We stand by our metal rites
We won't bow for anyone
We stand by our Metal Rites

Metallum, Recreo
Apprime, Aeternitas

Defend one thing and defend it well
Defend it like no other thing
Defend it till the day you die
Always defend your Metal Rites

We don't owe you a fucking thing
We stand by our metal rites

We won't bow for anyone
We stand by our Metal Rites
