

Revenge

Mind Assault

I try to make sense of these feelings, the way they silently break me.
I stare at your eyes and I wish I could die.
Nothing can bring you back.
So look in my eyes and see the pain that will end your life.
My fist, your face, cause I live for your blood.
I hope you see I cannot forgive.
Your life is mine; I want to see you die.
I'm broken to the bone; my tears will burn your soul.
Get down and pray for your wrongs.
Now I'm going insane, my rage flows from the pain.
I'll squeeze the air from your lungs.
Feel what he felt and fear me with your life in my hands.
Your life will end, because I tasted your blood.
You hope that I can forgive.
Your life is over, I will end your life.
I'm broken to the bone; my tears will burn your soul.
Get down and pray for your wrongs.
Now I'm going insane, my rage flows from the pain.
I'll squeeze the air from your lungs.
I can't take this anymore.
Your freedom becomes my war.
I'm broken to the bone; my tears will burn your soul.
Get down and pray for your wrongs.
Now I'm going insane, my rage flows from the pain.
I'll squeeze the air from your lungs.
Rains wash your blood off my hands, but the stains will last forever.
There's no where to go and nowhere to hide.
Nothing can bring you back.
