

Suffer

Mind Assault

Slip away, fall to dust, another sacrifice suffocate by lust.
Born from pain we invest in hate, to satisfy all the world call s great
You can't change me; never will you make or break me.
My decisions are my own, this journey I walk alone.
Live and suffer
Burn in me all this fire, together inside feeding on each other Rise insane we fucked up again, by bringing the entire world in to pain
You can't change me; never will you make or break me.
My decisions are my own, this journey I walk alone.
Live and suffer
Try to stay away, stay away. Stay away from the pain inside.
Fuck this shit, fuck it all, my life's mine, breaking all the c hains
Live to hate, our mother fucking fate. The reason our world is in this state.
You can't change me; never will you make or break me.
My decisions are my own, this journey i walk alone.
Live and suffer
